

We are Anchored©

Is an expression of a love that will live on in a loved one's heart until they are together again. It is the perfect gift for a family member, a friend or just someone who needs to hear the comforting words that will help them through each day. They will again be making memories with their loved one who has them anchored in their heart!

We are Anchored

I am forever anchored in your heart I show you through signs we are never far apart

*Although you cannot feel me
You can see my guiding light
My angel wings surround you I am in your dreams at night*

*I am every soaring hawk High in the heavens above
I am a patient dime or penny waiting to show you my love*

*My love is unconditional
Our bond will never sever
I am anchored in your heart
We will be connected forever*

The History of "We are Anchored"

Without knowing it our daughters, Elizabeth and Jacquelyn penned a poem about their dad being anchored in their heart. Using their thoughts, together we wrote:

"We are Anchored"

The words have given us a sense of peace as we go through each day missing everything about his physically being present in our lives.

I hope the words give you, your family and friends the same sense of having your loved ones present in a new special way. The signs are all around you. You just have to look for the usual signs and those you know are only from your loved one, especially for you.

Our Warmest Wishes,
